

GREG COX

SUPERVISOR, FIRST DISTRICT
SAN DIEGO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, October 12, 2010

Supervisor Greg Cox In the Coming Week

CLOSING THE REVOLVING DOORS OF THE JUSTICE SYSTEM

Supervisor Greg Cox will join fellow County elected officials in announcing the launch of a Reentry Court program designed to stop the revolving door to prison. The program will provide treatment, supervision and rehabilitation to non-violent parolees in an effort to reduce their recidivism rate so they do not offend and go back to prison.

11 a.m., Tuesday, October 12, Room 302/302 County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway

OPENING THE NEW COUNTY OPERATIONS CENTER

Supervisor Greg Cox will help cut the ribbon to open the new County Operations Center in Kearny Mesa. The complex of modern, energy-saving buildings replaces outdated, inefficient office buildings and will provide better access to the public.

1 p.m. Wednesday, October 13, 5500 Overland Avenue, Kearny Mesa

CELEBRATING HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

Supervisor Greg Cox will proclaim September 15-October 16 Hispanic Heritage Month at a celebration sponsored by the San Diego County Latino Employees Association. The celebration will focus on "Heritage, Diversity, Integrity, and Honor: The Renewed Hope of America" and will feature Latin food and music.

11:30 a.m. Friday, October 15, west side of County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway
